

Decision in the Lambert Case Re- served.

The United States Supreme Court at Washington yesterday reserved decision on the application of Prosecutor Jenkins, of Camden, of the habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Theodore Lambert, the condemned murderer. Lawyer Semple, representing the prisoner, was present to answer the application, but the matter was submitted on briefs. A speedy decision is looked for.
