

OVER IN CAMDEN

William Crispin, aged 14 years, of 782 Walnut street, has been reported to the police as missing from his home.

The Camden County Board of Elections yesterday elected Joseph M. Engard chairman and John Beaston secretary.

Thomas Paul, a boy, of 930 South Sixth street, was bitten on the chest by a horse yesterday. The wound was cauterized at Cooper Hospital.

J. Frank Elwell, formerly of Camden, has been made a special aide de camp of the territorial militia of Arizona, with the rank of captain.

The 2-year-old daughter of Assistant Postmaster Sayrs had her finger so badly crushed by a washing machine that amputation was necessary.

James Rand and Jolla Clark were held in $300 bail by Justice Stackhouse yesterday on a charge of keeping a disorderly house at Broadway and Branch street.

Agnes Blockson, of 1415 Knight street, fell from her bicycle at Second and Stanley streets yesterday and sprained her ankle. She was taken to Cooper Hospital.

Charles Hall, aged 45 years, of 1847 Locust street, was overcome by the heat yesterday while at work at Delaware avenue and Cooper streets. He was taken home.

Frank Jones, aged 6 years, of 719 Chestnut street, may lose the sight of an eye through a quarrel with a chum, who jabbed him in the left eye with a pointed stick.

Constable Welsh yesterday attached the cash register of Michael Walsh, of 503 Federal street, one of the saloonkeepers serving a sentence in the county jail for Sunday liquor selling.

Ella Riley, the East Side incorrigible girl, was examined by Drs. Robinson and McAllister, pronounced insane and taken to the State Asylum by Overseer of the Poor Jeffers.

Raymond Haines, aged 18 years, of 10 Hudson street, was taken ill while at work yesterday. On the way to Cooper Hospital he became delirious and fought desperately with the policemen.

Nine spans of copper wire used in the Hall automatic block system of the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad were stolen on Saturday between Liberty Park and City Line. Detective Curtis has a clue to the thieves.

James Thornton, who was charged with assaulting Bicycle Policeman Matlack on Saturday night at Tenth and Ferry avenue, was discharged by Recorder Nowrey yesterday, as Thornton proved that it was a case of mistaken identity.

A man giving the name of J. F. Raux and Mt. Ephraim as his residence died shortly after his admission to Cooper Hospital on Sunday from tuberculosis. County Physician Jones held a view. The body was removed to the morgue. Raux is supposed to have relatives in Ohio.

Peter Davis, a Philadelphia weaver, was dismissed by Recorder Nowrey yesterday on the charge of attempting to force his attentions on Jennie Conaway, of 1714 Ladimer street, Philadelphia, while on an Atlantic City train on Sunday night, as the complainant failed to appear against him.