

GOV. WERTS MAKES APPOINTMENTS.

Some of Them Confirmed by the Senate and Some Rejected.

TRENTON, N. J., May 17.—Gov. Werts appointed the following as the commission of twenty to suggest amendments to the Constitution for the revision of the judicial system of the State:

At Large—John P. Stockton, Allan McDermott, William Walter Phelps, Samuel H. Grey; First District—Howard Carrow, George Hires; Second District—William M. Lanning, Edward Stokes; Third District—George C. Ludlow, Henry Mitchell; Fourth District—Carman F. Randolph, J. Frank Fort; Fifth District—Garret A. Hobart, John D. Probst; Sixth District—Frederick Frelinghuysen, Edward Halbach, Jr.; Seventh District—Joseph D. Bedle, Col. E. A. Stevens; Eighth District—John Kean, Jr., J. M. C. Morrow.

The Governor nominated William A. Newell for lay Judge of Salem County, William T. Hoffman of Monmouth for Circuit Judge in place of Senator Voorhees, (declined,) and John I. Holt of Passaic (Speaker of the House) as Riparian Commissioner in place of R. B. Reading, (withdrawn.)

Senator Voorhees's declination of the Circuit Judgeship was made upon the ground that, having been elected to the Senate, he owed it to his constituents to serve out his term.

The Senate this afternoon confirmed the appointments for the Constitution Commission and the Riparian Commissioner. Major E. J. Anderson, the nominee for State Prison Supervisor was confirmed by a vote of 18 to 2. Senator Skirm (Rep., Mercer,) and Senator Drake (Dem., Morris,) voted against him. The nominations of Wilson S. Jenkins for Prosecutor of Camden County and John Gaunt for lay Judge of Camden County were rejected.

Action on other nominations was as follows:

State Fish Commissioners—Messrs. Clark, Page, Pfelfer, and Frothingham, confirmed.

Lay Judge of Salem County—William A. Newell, referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Circuit Court Judge—William T. Hoffman of Monmouth, referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Lay Judge of Hudson County—Albert Hoffman, rejected.

Lay Judge of Gloucester County—Bowman S. Cox, rejected.

Lay Judge of Cape May County—S. H. Bennett, confirmed.

Prosecutor of Gloucester County—Perry Belmont, rejected.

Lay Judge of Burlington County—Joseph H. Gaskill, confirmed.

Inspector of Factories and Workshops—Lawrence T. Fell, referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Trustees of Home for Feeble-Minded Women—B. F. Lee, B. F. Thorn, and M. P. Gray, confirmed.

Lay Judge of Hunterdon County—W. H. Baker, confirmed.

Lay Judge of Union County—John W. Crane, confirmed.

Lay Judge of Essex County—Major Herman P. Schalk, confirmed.

Prosecutor of Essex County—Elvin W. Crane, confirmed.

Major by Brevet—Capt. John R. Stevens.

The Legislature adjourned to-night to reconvene next Wednesday night. It is thought the adjournment until September will occur next Thursday night or Friday morning.

The breaking up to-night was attended by many scenes of disorder in the House. Books, pamphlets, and bills rolled up in heavy wads were hurled about the chamber and there was a great deal of howling and shrieking.
