

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

** At a special session of the Criminal Court yesterday Judge Joline sentenced to six months in the county jail Frank Walters and to three months John Brooks for writing policy. Walters was also fined $100.

** James Spinola was sentenced to three years in State prison by Judge Joline yesterday for attacking Pasquale Juliana, near Elm. Spinola fired several shots at Juliana, none of which took effect.

** The Fireside New Year's Association will have a flag raising tomorrow at their new headquarters at 330 Kaighn avenue. Addresses will be made by Mayor Charles H. Ellis, former Mayor Joseph E. Nowrey, David B. Peterson and Councilman-at-Large Joseph Potter.

** Alfred Dudley yesterday announced his candidacy for City Council from the Sixth ward.

** The South Camden Pleasure Club was incorporated yesterday, with these trustees: Eugene McCarthy, Alfred Sayrs, Charles Welsh, John Genther and William Barr.

** Firemen William Rose, John Dold and Peter Gray have been appointed a committee to decorate the graves of deceased firemen tomorrow.

** Glass in a bulk window at the store of Joseph Jones, 2214 Federal street, East Camden, was smashed early yesterday morning and a five-pound box of candles was stolen.

** Many improvements have been made in the Rosedale section of East Camden in having the streets graded and curbed and the sidewalks paved, through the efforts of Councilman John W. Coleman, and now property owners are clamoring for sewers. Mr. Coleman has invited City Engineer Farnham to look the ground over and prepare plans.
